To conserve forever the lands and waters of the Finger Lakes region, ensuring scenic vistas, local foods, clean water, and wild places for everyone.

The Finger Lakes Land Trust (FLLT) is a nonprofit conservation organization working across 12 counties in Central New York. Since 1989, we have worked cooperatively with landowners and partners to protect some of the most treasured natural areas and open spaces in these vital watersheds. FLLT manages dozens of conservation areas that are free and open to the public for quiet recreation year-round. We also hold easements on protected lands that remain in private ownership. FLLT is supported by members, and you can help us do more!

NATURAL HISTORY

During the last ice age, glaciers sculpted the beautiful topography of the Finger Lakes Region. As the ice retreated, it left behind Canandaigua Lake and the glacially steepened Great Hill. Today much of the preserve is covered by stands of oak and hickory, which thrive on the sunny, dry, well-drained slopes. Many other trees and shrubs do well here too, including shadbush and witch hazel among the favorites.

HISTORY

Nundawao (Great Hill) is revered by the Senecas as the birthplace of their people. Native American settlements and relics have been found in the valley to the south of Great Hill. In 2000, Thomas and Sandra Hansen donated 219 acres to the Land Trust, followed by a 5-acre gift from James Fralick and, in 2012, the purchase of an additional 32 acres.
