region, ensuring scenic vistas, local foods, clean water, and wild places for everyone.

The Finger Lakes Land Trust (FLLT) is a nonprofit conservation organization working across 12 counties in Central New York. Since 1989, we have worked cooperatively with landowners and partners to protect some of the most treasured natural areas and open spaces in these vital watersheds. FLLT manages dozens of conservation areas that are free and open to the public for quiet recreation year-round. We also hold easements on protected lands that remain in private ownership. FLLT is supported by members, and you can help us do more!

Carolabarb Park’s mix of fields and forested ravines protects wildlife habitat and lake views near the High Tor Wildlife Management Area and several Finger Lakes Land Trust preserves.

NATURAL HISTORY

Carolabarb Park adjoins the scenic overlook previously created by the town of South Bristol on County Route 12. The park, once a vineyard, now protects a panoramic view of Canandaigua Lake’s rugged southern end and eastern shore, with unobstructed views of Bare Hill, South Hill, and the Land Trust’s Great Hill Nature Preserve. Bald Eagles are known to soar over the property.

HISTORY

FLLT accepted a conservation easement on Carolabarb’s scenic 38 acres in 2004 from the late Odell Scott, who simultaneously donated the land to the town of South Bristol for use as a public park. Carolabarb Park is named after both Carol Holcomb Scott, Scott’s first wife of 55 years who passed away in 1992, and Barbara Hawkins Scott, his second wife.

ACTIVITIES

There are currently no trails on the preserve. Visitors can enjoy the vista at the scenic overlook parking area year-round
